

Dr. Oliver Renz

Curriculum Vitae

Personal Information

Name: Dr. Oliver Renz
E-mail: oliver.renz@tirol-kliniken.at

Position: Senior physician

Professional Development

1994	2002	Study of medicine at the Leopold Franzens-University Innsbruck
03/1998	2003	Herztransplantation an der Ratte im Daniel Swarovski Research Laboratory (DSL)
12/1999	12/2002	Dissertation: UW, HTK vs. St. Thomas Solution for prolonged cold ischemia in the heart transplantation model: Analysis of enzyme activity and organ function
04/2001		Special course: Animal experimental work with consideration of replacement and complementary methods in theory and practice at the Medical Faculty of the University of Innsbruck
2003	2009	Assistant physician at the University Clinic for General, Visceral, and Transplant Surgery in Innsbruck
01/2010	12/2013	Assistant physician for pediatric surgery at the University Hospital Innsbruck, degree: specialist for pediatric surgery

Additional Training, additional Professional Title

- 07/2000 Socrates Intensive Programme "Cellular energy channels" at the Joseph Fourier University in Grenoble (F)
- 12/2002 05/2003 Advanced Training in Organ Transplantation: ESOT Training Course
Cambridge (UK); Paris (F)
- 04/2006 "High MIC" Intensive Training Course in Minimally Invasive Surgery at the Surgical Department at the State Hospital Bregenz
-

Teaching

- 2006/07 Dissection course, (module 2.01) "Structure and function of the human body" supervision and examination 7 tables each with 8 students
Special anatomy: systematics and function of the vascular system
Special anatomy: sectional anatomy
Anatomical Basics of Imaging Techniques
- 2007 Surgical internship
- 01/2008 MCI Endoscopy Internship Module IV - Learning Center
-

Prizes and Awards

- 06/2003 Wilhelm-Auerwald-Prize "Best Dissertation at a Medical Faculty 2002"

Innsbruck, 23.08.2019